

Human Rights Policy

Together

We are Clemark Group,

Registered in England & Wales under Associate Enterprises Limited and including all wholly owned subsidiaries. We also trade as Assent, Lorators, Clemark.

Our integrated management system covers the provision of consultancy, auditing, training, creative, technology and other professional services delivered in-person and remotely to ensuring the quality of products/services and the security of all information.

Introduction

Associate Enterprises Limited treats the implementation of suitable, current and acceptable human rights policies with diligence and sensitivity.

As an organisation we aim to ensure all stakeholders directly or indirectly related to our supply chain, including employees and freelance contractors, align with our values and we provide this document for any interested parties on our Human Rights Policy.

Human Rights

Assent thrives on the belief that every Human being will be treated fairly, without discrimination and able to express ideas, beliefs and views feeling safe and free from fear.

Assent's commitment

Adhering to the UNs guiding principles on business and human rights and the international labour organisation (ILO) on the conventions of all interaction regarding these principles are outlined below in this policy document.

We aim to respect and follow these principals in all areas of operations both in domestic and global affairs, when interacting with clients, Suppliers and other interested parties.

What to expect from Assent

Protecting the rights of Children,

We ensure that no forms of illegal child labour are used in any way, shape or form within our operations.

Modern Slavery Act, 2015,

We work to ensure the correct protective use of the UK Modern Slavery Act is put in place to make sure no slavery or abuses on labour is present with all associations directly and indirectly within our sphere of influence, and we work to ensure Human Trafficking is not present in our operations or that of any associated organisations.

Preventing bribery and corruption,

Our anti-bribery policy ensures there are no forms of bribery and or corruption present within the workforce or operations of the organisation.

Freedom to join traders' union

All employees are free and able to join any participating and active trade Union.

Working Hours

All employees are allocated to reasonable working hours with flexible adjustments as and when appropriate.

Equality and Diversity.

It is the effort of all people directly, or indirectly, associated with the organisation to give equal judgments and fair treatment for all others, and we prioritise an equal and diverse workforce.

Remuneration

We committed to paying an equal and fair wage to all staff in accordance with the living wage foundation's recommendations.

What Assents expects in return
